"The Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund

In March of 2020, Congress passed the CARES Act, which includes the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund. This fund is intended to provide aid for crisis-related expenses such as health care, housing, food, and educational expenses. Cleary is pleased to announce that we were selected to receive monies from this fund and are now in the process of dispersing funds directly to students. The funds are first apportioned to students based on need as determined by the receipt of federal assistance (SEOG, Pell, and Title IV). If you have any questions please contact the Business Office at businessoffice@cleary.edu. "
